Associate

Mike Tadenev is a senior associate based in the firm's Ellsworth office. Mike works with Mount Desert Island and mid-coast businesses and individuals in the areas of real estate law, asset preservation, estate planning, and general business matters.

Mike's experience encompasses the following aspects of real estate representation:

- Acquisitions and dispositions
- Sale/leasebacks
- Financing
- Easements, rights of way, and boundary line disputes
- IRC Section 1031 tax-deferred exchanges
- Leasing for landlords and tenants
- Asset management

Prior to joining Eaton Peabody in 2016, Mike spent nearly a decade representing businesses and insurance companies in a broad range of civil matters that included significant experience in labor and employment law, including workers' compensation law, having practiced extensively before the Maine Workers' Compensation Board, the Board's Appellate Division, and, on several occasions, the Maine Supreme Judicial Court.

Mike's experience has included:

- Sale of the Historic Bar Harbor Bass Cottage Inn.
- Represented Mount Desert Island developers in acquisition of $3.9 million Bar Harbor mansion.
- Provided pro bono legal services to Island Housing Trust for the donation and relocation of the Beech Hill house.
- Successfully defended a large Maine employer in appeal to the Maine Supreme Judicial Court, resulting in a precedent-setting decision involving the maximum benefits provision of the Maine Workers' Compensation Act.

Mike is a native Russian speaker and maintains proficiency in reading and writing in Russian.
