

Ryan P. Dumais

Litigation / Dispute Resolution

Shareholder

Ryan assists clients statewide with a variety of dispute resolution and litigation matters. Ryan's practice focuses on cases involving real estate disputes including rights associated with easements, licenses, boundary disputes, and restrictive covenant violations. Ryan also has experience with defending disputes involving allegations of employment and housing discrimination. In addition to his work at the trial level, Ryan has a strong appellate practice and has prevailed before the Maine Supreme Judicial Court both on written briefs and following oral argument.
